Erasmus+ Programme
Inter-institutional agreement
Key Action 1
Mobility of higher education students and staff

between EU Member States and third countries associated to the Programme and third countries not associated to the Programme

Project: 2023-1-HR01-KA171-HED-000132207

Croatia, University of Applied Sciences "Lavoslav Ružička" in Vukovar (VEVU) -
BIH, Partner HEI: University College "CEPS- Center for Business Studies" _Kiseljak (CEPS)
Project duration: 01.08.2023. -31.07.2025

The institutions¹ named below agree to cooperate for the exchange of students and/or staff in the context of the Erasmus+ programme. This agreement is valid for the Erasmus+ call years 2023-2025 in:

- KA171 Higher education mobility supported by external policy funds

The institutions commit to sound and transparent management of funds allocated to them through Erasmus+ and to respect the quality requirements of the Programme, outlined in the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education² and in this agreement.

The institutions agree on exchanging their mobility-related data according to the principles of GDPR³ and in line with the technical standards of the European Student Card Initiative⁴, when this becomes available for international mobility involving third countries not associated to the Programme.

Sending institutions located in EU/EEA countries have to ensure compliance with the provisions of art. 46 GDPR for all participants' personal data exchanged in the context of their mobility with institutions from non-EU/EEA countries without an adequacy decision, on the condition that enforceable data subject rights and effective legal remedies for data subjects are available in the respective third country. The participants should be informed in a transparent manner about the level of protection of their personal data, if this is different from the one where the sending institution is located.

Partner institutions are obliged to send the notify by official e-mail to VEVU in a timely manner about the situations or changes that could affect the implementation of the activity or delay it and affect the financial interests of the EU,

¹ Inter-institutional agreements can be bilateral or multilateral in the case of mobility consortia:

- Bilateral agreements are for cooperation between one higher education institution located in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme and another institution located in a third country not associated to the Programme
- Multilateral agreements are for cooperation between a mobility consortium of higher education institutions located in one single EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme and another institution located in a third country not associated to the Programme.

Blended mobility will be additional agreed.

Number of the mobilities represent the planned mobility flows in accordance with the approved project budget for all period of the project implementation.

In the case of relocation of the project budget and possible changes the partners agree to update the mobility flow data, formally through e-mail confirmation by primary contact at partner HEI and VEVU erasmus coordinator.

At request means that max agreed mobility can be implemented but as well not at all, because of less spots for outgoing mobilities then numbers of partner HEIs. That depend form participants interest in visit partner HEI.

With the purpose of maximum expenditure of funds from the project budget, if mobility spot for students from partner HEI to VEVU will not be implemented or in realization until June 1, 2024, the planned spot can be reallocated to other partner HEI.

2. Recommended language skills

The sending institution, following agreement with the receiving institution, is responsible for providing support to its nominated candidates so that they can have the recommended language skills⁸ at the start of the mobility period (see also section 5 "Preparation and Support").

Receiving institution [Erasmus code or city]	Field of education (Optional)	Language of instruction 1	Language of instruction 2	Recommended level
				Student Mobility [Minimum recommended level in at least one of the languages: B1]	Staff Mobility [Minimum recommended level in at least one of the languages for teaching: B2]

-------------	--	---------	------------------------	----	----

For more details on the language of instruction recommendations, see the course catalogue of each institution. The links to the course catalogue are provided in the first section.

3. Partnership arrangements: fees and organisational support funds

In accordance with the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education, partners commit to charge no additional fees to students:

- In connection with the organization or administration of their Erasmus+ credit mobility period at their institution. Any violation to this rule by the partners shall be brought to the attention of the National Agency and may lead to the termination of the participation in the project linked to this inter-institutional agreement, if no corrective measures are taken.
- For tuition, registration, examinations or access to laboratory and library facilities. Nevertheless, they may be charged small fees on the same basis as local students for costs such as insurance, student unions and the use of miscellaneous material.

In accordance with the preliminary agreement, there will be no redistribution of allocated organizational support (OS) between partners. However, in case of exceptional needs, it will be considered on a case-by-case basis by the VEVU Erasmus committee.

Partners agree on the following use and repartition of organisational support funds including a list of objectives that both partners consider a priority:

OS Use and Repartition	Priority Objectives
Part of OS can be relocated for participant's mobilities.	Participation of all partner institutions Provide a sufficient number of staff mobility to ensure incoming mobility of representatives of all partner HEIs.
Organizing the buddy support, welcome and integration activities for students.	ECHE Quality
Other costs that may appear in relation of mobility participants (costs of residence permits, etc..)	Preparation of the learning agreements to ensure full recognition of the students' educational components; Linguistic and intercultural preparation provided to both incoming and outbound students and staff, ensure an efficient mentoring and supervision arrangements of mobile participant with an emphasis on green and environmental save practices.
Organizing Internal staff teaching week for incoming teachers.	Integration and Inclusion
OS will be used for dissemination of the project and its impacts. (Informal and OR materials)	Facilitate the integration of incoming mobile participants in the HEI; identify and promote civic engagement activities and monitor participation in such activities;

International dimension and Communicating projects and their results to maximise impact

Support the reintegration of mobile participants and build on their acquired new competences for the benefit of the HEI and peers; promote and manage blended and/or international mobility.

4. Outreach and Selection of participants: calendar, application procedure and requirements

- Partners commit to doing outreach to participants with fewer opportunities to encourage their participation in the Programme and, where needed, agree on a common strategy to meet indicative inclusion targets.
- Partners commit to running selection procedures for mobility activities that are fair, transparent and documented, ensuring equal opportunities to participants eligible for mobility. The calls for applications must be public and an appeal procedure must be in place. Under no circumstances, shall applicants and selected participants incur any costs during application and selection procedures.
- In the case of student mobility, partners will ensure that other elements beyond academic merit are taken into account to ensure participation of students with fewer opportunities. Selection criteria and procedures must be clearly communicated in the call for applications.

The sending HEI selects participants, and nominates them to be accepted or rejected by the receiving institution.

Sending HEI is responsible for the mobility participants' selection procedures (Implementation of transparent internal competitions for the selection of participants.), as well as checking the applicant's conditions for participation in mobility and the authenticity of the document they submit attached to the application for their participation in mobility, especially those that prove their fewer opportunities status. Partner HEIs are obliged to keep the original project documentation for 5 years after the final project report is approved by AMPEU and deliver copy of the documents relevant for proof of certain status or conditions for payment of top up to the participant.

Nomination acceptance by receiving (host) HEI will be done according to the home HEI internationalization interests and possibilities to arrange high quality impacts for participants and in line to the project budget that is available for certain mobilities.
